We are very thankful to the Executive Council on designating these responsibilities to us and we promise that we will try to come up to the mark, and we will fulfill these responsibilities with best of our effort and will never let down the confidence of the Executive Council of Society of Surgeons of Pakistan.

This new issue of Pakistan Journal of Surgery is in your hands, and we hope that we will try to keep up the high standard which was laid down by our late chief editor Prof. Manzar Salim, and after unfortunate tragic death, was very well looked after by Prof. Abdul Majeed Chaudhry and Dr. Shams Nadeem Alam.

In the end we are very thankful to Prof. Abdul Majeed Chaudhry Former President Society of Surgeons of Pakistan, and Dr. Shams Nadeem Alam Former General Secretary (Central) and managing editor of Pakistan Journal of Surgery for keeping this high standard of Pakistan Journal of Surgery.
